END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

Upon download of your purchased script, you will receive a copy of the license agreement you shall be legally bound to. A summarization of such an agreement is provided below:

YOU MAY

- ✓ Install on unlimited servers you hold ownership of.
- ✓ Modify / alter included code without expectations of support from the developers.
- ✓ Utilize parts of the included code for personal projects you do not intend to resell or distribute to outside parties.
- ✓ Request support for base features originally included with the purchased addon that have not been altered (excluding configuration files).
- ✓ Submit suggestions / recommendations for future updates and features you'd like to see, however, understand that the developer is not required to implement them.

YOU MAY NOT

- ✖ Share, redistribute, sell, transfer this addon to any other individuals.
- ✖ Utilize parts of the included code as your own works in another product.
- ✖ Install the script on any server(s) you do not possess ownership of.
- ✖ Initiate a payment dispute for the addon without permission from the developer. This will result in an immediate ban from the gmodstore marketplace and loss of access to any and all purchased scripts associated with your account.
- ✖ Request support on parts of the addon that you have modified with your own code in order to manipulate / alter the functionality of the purchased addon (excluding configuration files).
